DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

Congressmen McCreary and Laffoon are the only Representatives from this State who increased their majorities over that of 1884. They have been remarkably successful in having the "rascals turned out" in their districts and the places filled by good Democrats, and their popularity is attributed largely to this fact.

The following is the total claims allowed by the Court of Claims of Clark County at its recent session:

Total amount ellowed.. ... $8,441 50

Tag barbed-wire monopoly has ad-vanced the price of wire $5 per ton. All the manufacturers signed the agreement, and their excuse is that the gost of ma-terial has advanced to that extent. The present rise in wire, therefore, leaves manufacturers even, but it is announced that another advance of $2.50 for profits is to be made in January next. 80 it goes. The manufacturing interests ap-pear to consider the farmers a common goes. The manufacturing interess appear to consider the farmers a common booty, and monopoly is the favored device for bringing them to terms.—Louisville Times.

After an election it is always popular to abuse the unsuccessful candidate, but if that is done in this district, we believe injustice will be done Judge Wall. He worked hard and faithfully for success. His character in no way detracted from the canvass, and we do not condemn him for our failure. He did his whole duty, and his defeat is in no way attributable to any fault or act of his. His opponent worked his old tricks for all that they were worth, and won by them, and those whose, ambilitions and wishes had been frustrated by Judge Wall's success, smilled while they stabbed AFTER an election it is always popular ed while they stabbed

Look to Your Insurance Policies.

"Among the insurance laws," remarks the Frankfort Capital, "passed by the inte Legislature there is one amending the general fire and marine laws that deserves the earnest attention of every property holder in the State. It is known as the Broker's or Special Agent law, and provides a mode by which those owding large business or manufacturing properties can obtain in a legal way all necessary insurance thereon, where the risk has been declined by authorized companies, as is often the case in mills, factories, distilleries and other property where ries, distilleries and other property where some specially hazardous business'is con-ducted. However, that which will at ducted. However, that which will at once cause every property owner carrying insurance to look up his polseles and Inquire whether the companies lasuling them to him has authority from the State to make contracts with its citizens, will be found in the third paragraph of this law, which declares all contracts made with unauthorized companies, i e: those not holding license from the State to do busness herein, to 'be null and void and of no effect whatever.'

mess lerein, to 'be null and void and of no effect whatever.'

"Let those holding fire policles look them up, and those holding policles of companies not having the authority of the State todo business, who retain them, will do so with their eyes open to the fact that they are ading these companies to defraud the State of its proper revenues, and that he order that they may have cheaper haurance, they are reality carrying their own risks while paying others to assume them."

Some of the clitizens and property owners on Front street objected to the erection of the Maywille and Big Sandy telegraph line next to the pavement in front of their houses, and had the work-men stopped yesteriay. The delay, however, was only temporary, as permission from a inajority of the members of the City Council was soon obtained, and the hands proceeded with their work.

We are informed that some of the best taient in the city will assist Professor Frost and his pupils in their concert at the court house next Monday night. The proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the Espital Clurch. The people of Mayswille tawe an opportunity to aid in a praiseworthy cause in this case, and at the same time enjoy a rien musical treat. Secure tickets. General admission only 25 cents.

EMMA PEARL, colored, was found dead it one of the buildings in Owens' Row this morning by the other occupants of the honse. The deceased was eighteen years old. Coroner M. T. Cockreil was summoned and held an inquest on the remains. The jury decided that death resulted from typhoid fever. From the evidence introduced, it was more a case of decitation and want of proper care and treatment.

Mss. John Allen, who came here about three weeks ago from her home in Poplar Plains, Fleming County, to attend Mrs. Jennie Clarke's artschool, died yesterday afternon in the Armatrong building, corner of Sutton and Third streets. Sie had been ill for several days, but her death was rather sudden and unexpected. Her remains were taken to her late home this morning. The deceased was a daughter of Thomas Darnail, who was, in his day, one of the wealthlest farmers of Fleming County. Her husband was a resident of this place at one time, but died several years ago.

A Fatal Affray Near Aberdeen.

Our correspondent at Aberdeen gives the following particulars of a terrible tragedy which occurred back of that piace Wednesday: "A cutting affray which reaulted in the killing of one man and the probably fatal wounding of another, took place at the farm of Mr. Alex. Martin, near here, Wednesday. Mr. Edgar Martin and two hired hands, named Wils. Pardum and John Beck, got into a difficulty over the division of some property, and in the fight which ensued property, and in the fight which ensued Martin stabbed Purdum to the heart, killing him instantly. Martin also cut Martin stabbed Purdum to the free killing him instantly. Martin also c Beck so badly that there is but sm chance for his recovery. Martinescap and is still at large. He is said to be Kentucky."

THE "shanty-boat mystery" at Cin The "shanty-look mystery" at Chi-ciunati has been cleared up, at last. George W. Still, who was found in his boat six weeks ago with his-kuli frac-tured and in an insensible condition, has finally recovered, and has told who his distally recovered, and has told who his assailants were. According to his story, Joseph Russell and William Cox are the parties who beat him up so badly and then left him for dead, after taking $1.90 in cast, a check for $2.40, a watch, gold ring and other property. Russell is now in custody in Cincinnati, having been tarrested at Ripleyshortly after the tragedy with the check in his possession. It will be remembered that he tried to account for the check by claiming he soft it from Win. Ramsey, who was in jail in this city at the time of the attack on Still and the subsequent arrest. Cox-lived here some years ago. He was arrested some wee sance, but the Cincinnati authorities released him, as they had no evidence significant of Ripley and Cincinnati are on the look against nim. Still has had a warrar issued for him, however, and the polic of Ripley and Cincinnati are on the loo out for him.
